

Floortiqué

Wastage and Breakages

Please note that unfortunately you can expect a few breakages which occur during transit, as natural stone tiles are not boxed and can experience some rough handling while being swapped from vehicle to vehicle.

When tiling try and start from a centre point working towards the walls.

It is normal practice to order at least 10% for wastage and cuts.

Where there is a Cut Tile always use a broken tile or one with the corner missing.

